Consultation on Planning Applications in preparation for Cornwall Council

This document, although only received on 9 March needed to be returned to County by 16 March. This was the reason for calling an extraordinary meeting. The Clerk will e-mail the result after the meeting. The list had been circulated to Councillors.

Cllr Rashleigh suggested that two more instances should be added: Greenfield Development and The Building of Houses in Gardens. It was generally agreed that the Council would wish to be informed of all the instances and constraints listed. It was proposed by Cllr Keeling, seconded by Cllr Higginson and unanimously resolved that the Clerk mark all the boxes to show that the Council wished to be informed of all Planning instances and constraints should they arise once Cornwall Council was in place and also that the Clerk add Greenfield Development and The Building of Houses in Gardens at item 34 on the list of Planning Application types and constraints supplied by County.
